

INTRODUCTION OF COOLING-OFF PERIOD FOR LIMIT INCREASE & TRANSACTION AUTHENTICATION FOR TRANSACTION BETWEEN OWN HSBC ACCOUNTS AND SAVED PAYEES.

11 November 2024

Dear Valued Customers,

Please be informed that new security enhancements will soon be introduced to HSBC Online and Mobile Banking as part of our continuous efforts to safeguard your online banking security. This is in line with the regulatory direction and industry-wide efforts to combat fraud and scam cases.

Enhancement #1 12-hour cooling-off period for online banking limit increase

- The 12-hour cooling-off period is applicable to the following services when their limits are increased via HSBC Online Banking:
 - Own HSBC account transfers
 - Third party HSBC transfers
 - Overseas (Telegraphic) transfers
 - Interbank GIRO (IBG)
 - DuitNow (Online Banking)
 - DuitNow (Mobile Banking)
 - QR Pay
 - FPX
 - Bill Payments
- During the 12-hour cooling-off period, no further increase or reduction of limits can be made until the cooling-off period is over and the new limit(s) take effect. If you need further assistance, please visit your nearest branch or call Contact Centre.
- For clarity, the reduction of online banking limits is not subject to the cooling-off period and will be effective immediately.

Enhancement #2 Transaction authentication is required for transfers between your own HSBC accounts and saved payees.

- For transactions initiated via HSBC Mobile Banking, you will be prompted to authenticate via biometrics/6-digit PIN for the following transactions:
 - Payments or transfers between your own HSBC accounts exceeding RM 10,000.
 - Payments or transfers to saved payees for any transaction amount.

 - For transactions initiated via HSBC Online Banking, you will be prompted to generate a re-authenticate code via Mobile Secure Key for the following transactions:
 - Payments or transfers between your own HSBC accounts exceeding RM 10,000.
 - Payments or transfers to saved payees for any transaction amount.

Should you require any further assistance, please contact us.

Thank you for choosing HSBC. It's always a pleasure to serve you.
